

That's how it works...

In this quiz we are looking for names & terms a tomb raider should know about. Once you worked out everything, you get a Latin sentence. Until the last day of 2013, this sentence can be sent to Sponge via PM on forum.laraslevelbase.org like a slogan. From everyone who has sent in the correct slogan, three winners will be drawn by lot. Those three lucky ones shall each be sent one of the pretty rare Advent Calendar teacups as a reward. In case they have even sent the correct translation along with the slogan (German or English), they shall be rewarded another little something. (Nope, Google Translator cannot help you with this one).
